RE: Year End Report (10/1/03-12/31/03)

Dear Ms. Balderama,

In response to your inquiry dated February 17, 2004, I am enclosing copies of the following checks representing refunds, to wit:

Mohammed Aminullah- $500.00
Manton for Congress inc-$500.00
SMC Professional Center $2,000.00

Said checks represent refunds for contributions that exceeded the limits permitted under law. Please note that Farber, Rosen PC is an attorney partnership whose contribution has been allocated to a partner.

With regard to your inquiry as it relates to the column B figures for the Summary and Detailed Summary Page, please note that I have electronically filed an amendment. Said report now shows that the column B figures for the Summary and Detailed Summary Page now equals the sum of the Column B figures on my previous report and the Column A figures on this report. The discrepancy was due to a mistaken entry which was corrected. Additionally, in said amendment, I have updated the employer and occupation for those individuals whose information was unknown and then requested.

I trust this satisfies your inquiry, however, feel free to contact me if there is anything else you require.

Very truly yours,

SCOTT G. KAUFMAN

Contributions are not tax deductible on Federal Tax returns. Federal law requires political committees to report the name, mailing address, occupation and name of employer for each individual whose contributions aggregate in excess of $100 in a calendar year.
